

D R A F T

POTENTIAL FUTURE AGENDA ITEMS
FOR NSCIC
INTELLIGENCE PANEL

- Handwritten:* 1. Intelligence Uncertainty. How to describe uncertainty of judgment in production. Kent chart. Raised by DoD in 20 Nov. session.
2. Handbook for Consumers. Describes allocation of production responsibilities among agencies and the status of capabilities. Raised by Ellsworth in 20 Nov. session.
3. National Intelligence Strategy. Describe what IC Staff is thinking about in this connection, seek Panel advice/involvement.
- Handwritten:* 4. National Intelligence Requirements Process. Describe what IC Staff hopes to achieve, seek Panel advice/involvement.
- Handwritten:* 5. National/Tactical Intelligence Interface. Can Intell Panel/WG do anything to advance this project?
- *6. The "fact of" Satellite Photographic Reconnaissance.
- *7. NSCID No. 9. Operations Within the US and Involving US Citizens Abroad.
- *8. Omnibus NSCID.
- Handwritten:* { 9. Alert Memoranda. Briefing memo for WG describing this product and procedure.
10. Strategic Warning, DCID/5.
11. Warning/Crisis Management. Report on developments in warning and crisis management activities.

*Denotes item already on
NSCIC WG agenda.

12. Consumer Complaints (except items 1 and 2 above) articulated in 20 Nov. session of WG. Provide these to the Panel for action/response/information.
13. Feedback. What system would be most helpful to provide feedback from NSCIC WG, i.e., review of individual papers, families of products, other.
14. Net Assessment. Role for Intelligence in this process.
15. Focus B Assessments. To select countries that deserve attention of USIB/HSC in improving HUMINT reporting. Panel to develop priority list by country/subject.
- *16. Pending Legislation. To amend National Security Act of 1947 to protect sources and methods.
17. Study of Impact of Cuts in Resources, that is, assist in identifying choices, and the consequences of reductions in given areas.

---

*Denotes item already on NSCIC WG agenda.

NOTE: Items not listed in any order of priority.